Affiliation

The Benefits

Your Campdraft is included in the Annual Series of Drafts to find the best horses and riders in the Country. Your Drafts will be run under the standard rules and regulations of the National Campdraft Council of Australia (NCCA) and the Australian Campdraft Association Inc. (ACA), which have been endorsed by drafters, which contributes to harmonious relations. Your Campdraft dates and program details are included in the ACA News, which is a free publicity service to affiliated Committees and on the ACA’s official website. Your results are published in the ACA News and the ACA website guaranteeing that your draft is not forgotten the moment it is over. ACA Councillors are ready to assist with any problems that may occur.

The Obligations

Committees must adhere to the Regulations of the NCCA and the ACA as stated in the General Information Competition Rules and Guidelines (ACA Rule Book). ACA to be advised of the desire for affiliation at least four weeks before the event and a copy of the program must be submitted. The official result sheets must be returned within seven days of the drafts and the affiliation fees must be paid.

Fee: $110	Yes	No
